

Summer Reading Mission: Book Quest!

Welcome, Adventurous Fifth Graders!

This summer, embark on an exciting Book Quest! Your mission is to complete a set of fun and creative activities with one fiction and one non-fiction book. These activities will help you explore new worlds, learn fascinating facts, and share your discoveries. Ready to start your adventure? Let's go!

Activity choices:

- Use i-Movie or another video platform to create a book trailer advertising your book so someone else will want to read it.
- Draw a map of the book's setting and explain how it contributes to the meaning, mood, tone, and beauty of the text.
- Create a PowerPoint "pitch" to a producer explaining why the story or the concept would make a great movie.
- Create a collage with words and pictures around central idea, theme, or characters in the book.
- Use Office 365 to write a character diary. Write at least five journal entries as if you were the main character in the story. Write down events that happen and reflect on how they affected the character and why.
- Create a timeline using drawings, magazine cutouts, pictures, and labels to show the main events, and how these events contribute to the meaning of the text.
- Design a T-shirt that promotes your book and write a jingle to sell it.
- Use Google Forms or Office 365 Forms to create a quiz for the book you read.

Good luck, young adventurers! Dive into your books, explore new realms of knowledge, and most importantly, have fun! 🌟📖🛡️
